REQUIREMENTS TO MAINTAIN YOUR FEDERAL TRADEMARK REGISTRATION

WARNING: YOUR REGISTRATION WILL BE CANCELLED IF YOU DO NOT FILE THE DOCUMENTS BELOW DURING THE SPECIFIED TIME PERIODS.

Requirements in the First Ten Years*

What and When to File:

First Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) between the 5th and 6th years after the registration date. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. If the declaration is accepted, the registration will continue in force for the remainder of the ten-year period, calculated from the registration date, unless cancelled by an order of the Commissioner for Trademarks or a federal court.

Second Filing Deadline: You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between the 9th and 10th years after the registration date.*
See 15 U.S.C. §1059.

Requirements in Successive Ten-Year Periods*

What and When to File:

You must file a Declaration of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) and an Application for Renewal between every 9th and 10th-year period, calculated from the registration date.*

Grace Period Filings*

The above documents will be accepted as timely if filed within six months after the deadlines listed above with the payment of an additional fee.

The United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) will NOT send you any future notice or reminder of these filing requirements.

ATTENTION MADRID PROTOCOL REGISTRANTS: The holder of an international registration with an extension of protection to the United States under the Madrid Protocol must timely file the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) referenced above directly with the USPTO. The time periods for filing are based on the U.S. registration date (not the international registration date). The deadlines and grace periods for the Declarations of Use (or Excusable Nonuse) are identical to those for nationally issued registrations. See 15 U.S.C. §§1058, 1141k. However, owners of international registrations do not file renewal applications at the USPTO. Instead, the holder must file a renewal of the underlying international registration at the International Bureau of the World Intellectual Property Organization, under Article 7 of the Madrid Protocol, before the expiration of each ten-year term of protection, calculated from the date of the international registration. See 15 U.S.C. §1141j. For more information and renewal forms for the international registration, see <http://www.wipo.int/madrid/en/>.

NOTE: Fees and requirements for maintaining registrations are subject to change. Please check the USPTO website for further information. With the exception of renewal applications for registered extensions of protection, you can file the registration maintenance documents referenced above online at <http://www.uspto.gov>.

November 27, 2012

Dear Mr. Jones:

I am intellectual property counsel for Ally Financial, including its affiliate Ally Bank, and have recently been made aware of your use and registration of the domain name allybankloans.com.

As you are undoubtedly aware, Ally offers banking services under the Ally brand and expends significant resources promoting and marketing its services. The Ally and Ally Bank marks are registered trademarks with the United States Patent and Trademark Office and Ally operates several websites incorporating the Ally name, including ally.com and allybank.com.

The purpose of your use of the allybankloans.com domain name is obvious – you are using the fame of the Ally mark to redirect consumers other websites. Several weeks ago, you were redirecting consumers who typed in allybankloans.com to the site veteransnationalbank.us, where you falsely claimed that "Veterans National Bank" was affiliated with Ally Bank. Recently you have begun using allybankloans.com to redirect consumers to chase.com, a bank that is a direct competitor of Ally Bank. These activities constitute trademark infringement under state and federal law, unfair competition and false advertising under state law, and violate Section 43(a) of the U.S. Trademark Act, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1125(a), as constituting false designation of origin. Furthermore, your use and registration of allybankloans.com is a clear violation of the Federal Anti-Cybersquatting Consumer Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. sec. 1125(d). In addition to the provision of attorney fees, the ACPA provides statutory damages of up to $100,000 per infringing domain name.

This is Ally's second attempt to inform you that your use and registration of allybankloans.com infringes Ally's trademark rights and to amicably settle this matter. We respectfully repeat our demand that you immediately cease and desist from any further use of the allybankloans.com domain name, transfer the domain name registration to Ally and contact me to confirm that you have discontinued use of the domain name and will provide Ally the authorization code to transfer the registration to Ally.

Your failure to respond to me on or before December 5, 2012 will leave Ally no alternative but to pursue legal action to stop your infringement of the Ally and Ally Bank marks. Ally reserves all of its rights by this letter.

Sincerely,

Gary W. Donohue

Intellectual Property Counsel, Ally Financial
